Luxury Marketing & Retail Trends in Africa – exciting opportunities for brands !

Stéphane Truchi :
Chairman of Ifop and
Luxury Market expert

« Africa is entering the club of the most strategic regions in the world for the sale of luxury goods, presenting the brands with new opportunities to expand business. These opportunities are favoured by rising incomes, the development of urbanisation, the rise of the middle class and a large population of millionaires. Several International luxury players are already present in the region and local brands are emerging in the international arena. For the luxury brands willing to be part of this dynamic, it is essential to learn from existing experiences and understand the codes to penetrate this market.

InCapsule by Ifop launches the “Luxury Marketing and Retail Trends” Book to help brands define strategies for capturing, activating and seducing luxury clientele living in Sub-Saharan Africa. Our team of trend hunters will analyse the successful brands’ initiatives in the region, based on the review of socio-cultural trends that impact the consumption of luxury goods and services. Whether your business is in cosmetics, fashion, jewellery, tourism, automotive or real estate, you will have the keys to maximise your brand’s and physical outlets’ value with the inspirations of this Trend Book.
